

Etchu Yatsuo

Owara Kaze no Bon

A Theatrical Prelude

As featured in The New York Times

Sunday, August 24, 2025

Showtimes: ①12:00 PM ②3:00 PM (Each performance runs approx. 60 minutes)

Venue: Aubade Hall, Main Hall

The world of Owara—expressed through words, song, and dance.
For over 300 years, the traditional event Owara Kaze no Bon has been passed down in Yatsuo, Toyama City.
This summer, its cherished Pre-Festival will come to life on stage at Aubade Hall—an opportunity to rediscover the enduring beauty of Owara, rooted in the hearts of the local community.

Part 1

“The Story of Owara” – A Tale Told Through Words

- Written and Directed by: Kuro Tanino
- Reading Performance by:

- ① 12:00 PM – Rie Shibata
- ② 3:00 PM – Kumi Takiuchi

Rie Shibata

Kumi Takiuchi

Part 2

Live Performance of “Echū Owara Bushi”

- Directed by: Kuro Tanino & Akira Sone
- Performed by: Echū Yatsuo Owara Preservation Society

Tickets

Adults ¥1,000 / Children ¥500 (All seats reserved. Tax included.)
Please Note Children under school age are not permitted to enter.

Ticket Counter

Aubade Hall, Main Hall 1F Tel: 076-445-5511

Hours: 10:00 AM – 6:00 PM

(Closed on Mondays. If Monday is a national holiday, closed the following weekday.)

Online Ticketing www.aubade.or.jp (Available 24 hours)

Inquiries

Citizens Arts Administration Center of Toyama

Tel: 076-445-5610 (Weekdays, 8:30 AM – 5:15 PM)